GENERAL POLICY Bouygues Travaux Publics
Anticipating the expectations of a changing world

Bouygues Travaux Publics is a recognised player in the French and international infrastructure market.

As a responsible and committed company, Bouygues Travaux Publics has duties and responsibilities with regard to its stakeholders. Its CSR strategy is fully in line with this dynamic and aims to commit to the following objectives:

"Placing employees at the centre of our performance"

- Guaranteeing fundamental human rights and fundamental liberties.
- Protecting health, safety and quality of life at work
- Being an inclusive company, enriched by its diversity.
- Developing its employees' skills.

"Controlling the impact of our activity on the environment"

- Reducing our CO2 emissions
- Being a player in the circular economy.
- Preserving biodiversity.

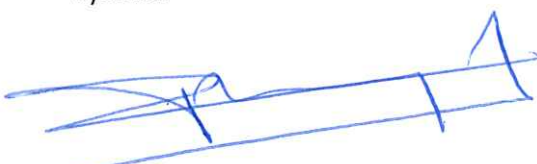

"Being an exemplary player in carrying out our profession"

- Making ethics the reference framework for all our decision and our acts.
- Building a dialogue with our partners to create win-win outcomes.
- Listening to our clients and offering innovative solutions.
- Being a successful, locally-based economic player

Based on this framework shared with our employees, clients and partners, and in compliance with applicable legal and regulatory requirements, the Bouygues Travaux Publics teams collectively agree to:

- Respect work schedules and deliver the right quality at controlled costs for our clients.
- Control the risks inherent in our activities.
- Innovate and grasp opportunities provided by digital resources to remain a leader in our markets. Collectively share the values of engagement, trust, transparency, cooperation and simplicity.
- In all our actions, develop the search for added value, efficiency and simplicity. Use feedback from projects to grow and share the company's expertise.

The Bouygues Travaux Publics management team is sharing this policy with all employees and partners. We undertake to ensure its deployment and steering through the management system.
